

Jean Payzan (birth date:3/7/1947).

Specific expertises :

- Fruits & vegetable cultivation and processing (specially canning).
- Factory design and organization. Identification of equipment suppliers.
- Quality Systems (ISO, HACCP,...).
- Network of sharp experts across the world : Peru (asparagus, artichokes), Costa Rica and Ecuador (Heart of Palms, pineapple), Thailand (baby cobs and sweet corn), China, green-houses.
- Management and Continuous Improvement Systems.

CV datas :

2012-current :

Consultant in Food Business, with projects in Peru, India, Vietnam and Madagascar.

Cultivation and process of green beans, tomatoes in green houses, fresh pineapple.

1992-2012 : Supply Chain Director, Green Giant International (subsidiary of General Mills (USA).

- General Manager of Seretram (France), largest sweet corn in the world.

- Management of external supply chain with contractors in Peru (asparagus, artichokes), heart of palms (Ecuador, Costa Rica), baby cobs (Thailand), ...
-

1981-1992 : Opérations Director for Geant Vert Europe (factories in France and Spain).

1976-1981 : Marketing & Sales in Euralis : corn seeds.

Academic training :

- Ingénieur Agronome INA (1970)
- Institut de Contrôle de Gestion
- INSEAD : International Project Management

Idiomas:

- French : native
- English : fluent
- Spanish :fluent